The Spanish still claim that Sampson was repulsed at San Juan.

A meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee was held in Louisville Tuesday.

Ex-Secretary John Sherman and wife will spend the greater part of the summer at Sitka, Alaska.

Two more newspaper men, claiming to be reporters for British papers, have been imprisoned by the Spanish at Havana.

A London news agency is authority for the statement that the Pope has sent peace proposals to the President.

Less than 3,000 of the first-call volunteers are not to be mustered in Kentucky, Iowa and Alabama alone are short.

At Camp Alger, Washington, they are digging wells and preparing a permanent camp. This does not look much like a speedy ending of the war.

The British Steamer Restormel, caught trying to supply Cervera with coal, has been libeled and will go before the prize court at Key West.

Commodore Schley is reported as saying: "I have got them, and they will never go home." Deeds, Commodore, deeds, are what we want. Not words.

If all of the officers of the Louisville Legion are as handsome as Col. Castleman and Maj. Crump, the regiment will create a sensation when it marches through the streets of Havana.

Eight additional regiments are to be sent to the Philippines, giving Gen. Merritt a force of 20,000 men. A second expedition will leave San Francisco this week.

Gen. Lee has been ordered from Tampa to Jacksonville and it is probable that the Santiago expedition, or a part of it, will embark from that point under command of Gen. Lee.

According to a dispatch from off Santiago, it is 110 degrees in the shade there now. Why the administration waited until hot weather to begin actual hostilities, is not apparent to the uninformed.

June 14 will be the 121st anniversary of the adoption of the American flag and steps are being taken to celebrate the day in many of the larger cities. Louisville will have a big blowout and premature Fourth of July. By-the-way, other important events have occurred on June 14th. For instance the present writer was born on that day.

The June issue of The Forum may, with some degree of propriety, be termed a Cuba number, for the first four articles deal with the Island, or the war with Spain. Senator Foraker heads the list with a paper entitled "Our War with Spain: its Justice and Necessity." He gives a succinct account of the events which led to the present war.

Gov. Bradley has received further orders from Secretary Alger to recruit three Kentucky regiments, raising the companies from 84 to 106 men. This will put half of the new men to be called out in the three regiments already raised and leave only one new regiment. As this cannot be a mixed regiment, it shuts out the colored regiment proposed.

Joseph Leiter's great wheat deal came to an end yesterday, the market for the month closing at $1.25, although it went as high as $1.85 during the month. Leiter has had many obstacles to encounter, but he has surmounted them all. The big elevator interests at Chicago made an attempt to drown him with high-priced wheat in December, but their offerings were all taken without a murmur. He will have to market considerable cash wheat at a loss, but he has cleared enormous profits, estimated at $4,000,000 on his May deal, and can afford to lose on his cash wheat.

POST-DISPATCH SNAP SHOTS.

If Cervera does not hurry up he will be listed with the "also rans."

The most astonishing feature of 1898 is the Browns playing good ball.

The Missouri troops at Camp Alger appear to be uniformly ununiformed.

Spanish rule in Cuba will be rung out, whether Gen. Bell joins the army or not.

The Cubans, in their primitive linen uniforms, have taken a great deal of starch out of the Spaniards.

Ever since the war began Commodore Schley's town of Frederick has considered itself Frederick the Great.

The sweet potato has been the staff of life to the Cuban insurgents. It should have a place on the seal of the new republic.

When the seven wives of Alexander Belleville of East St. Louis face him at the judgment there will be a lively game of seven-up.

The walk of the nurses in the City Hospital, illustrated in yesterday's Sunday Post-Dispatch, quite surpasses any cakewalk of the season.

Possibly the appointment of inexperienced civilians to military places has been based on the idea that the war would be sufficiently prolonged to make them capable officers.

The farmer who shouted to the passing Missouri troops, "Give 'em —, boys. I'm a-coming next call!" had the American idea pretty well in his head, though his expression of it may have been a little inclegant.

The son of a distinguished dad so often doesn't come anywhere near his father's record that any appointing power is in duty bound to consider such differences. A great battle might be lost through the incompetence of a single son of his papa.

Street railway companies not only take the stand-up passengers' nickels, but they take nickels without notifying passengers of a change by which cars do not run through as usual. Any way to get that nickel, no matter where the passenger may be landed.

To the widower who has mourned but one wife, the East St. Louisan who has married seven good women is an example to be well considered. There would be few unmarried women if every widower were as practical as this highly domestic citizen of Illinois.

If Mr. Jewett can unite the Mississippi with an underground river and thus relieve the big stream in its overflow, he will be doing a work greater than the making of the Nicaraguan Canal. He must be sure, however, that the subterranean stream shall not boil over and make matters worse.

Hon. John D. White has announced his candidacy for Congress in the Eleventh district as an Independent Republican. Mr. White will not submit his claims to the present Congressional Committee, which, he claims, is corrupt. His chief opponent will be Judge Vincent Boreing, who is Colson's man. Mr. White has a big following in the mountains. It is said that the Democrats will not make a nomination.

A What-Is-It Captured.

The greatest freak of nature ever witnessed by anybody is that now on exhibition on the corner of Front and Davison streets. It is an animal captured in Kentucky five years ago, weighing 106 pounds, has web feet like a goose, has no tail, squirrel ears and teeth, head and nose like a sheep, covered with bristles, is a reddish color and is a pet. The animal is of the neuter gender. — Kentucky Democrat.
